Class Information

Records Disclosure * All Day Wednesday October 26, 2011 *****

This class will cover the purpose and philosophy of the Public Records Act as well as give a statutory overview and framework. You will learn about statutory exemptions and law enforcement exemptions. Discussion will follow regarding Internal Affairs Investigations and Disciplinary Records as well as specific types of police records. We will cover RCW 10.97 and 13.50, the Criminal Records Privacy Act and Juvenile Records. You will learn to use the Attorney General's Office Model Rules as well as how to handle electronic records requests. We will also cover records retention, a case law update and a legislative update.

Instructor - Jeffrey Myers, Law, Lyman, Daniel, Kamerrer & Bogdanovich, Attorneys at Law

Jeff obtained his law degree from the University of Washington in 1986, after which he joined the Ecology Division of the State Attorney General's office until 1991 where he worked on hazardous waste and water quality issues. Jeff then worked in private practice in Seattle for several years, focusing on environmental cleanup issues and real property issues. In 1995, he became a Deputy Prosecuting Attorney with the Thurston County Prosecuting Attorney's Office, where he advised on land use and growth management issues. Jeff joined this firm in 1998 where his practice is now focused primarily on land use and real property matters. Jeff also represents governmental clients in public disclosure issues, including matters arising under the Public Records Act and Open Public Meetings Act. Jeff has conducted numerous trainings and seminars on public disclosure and land use issues.

The Basics of Leadership Thursday, October 27, 2011 0800-1200

This is an activity based session so be prepared to learn and have fun.

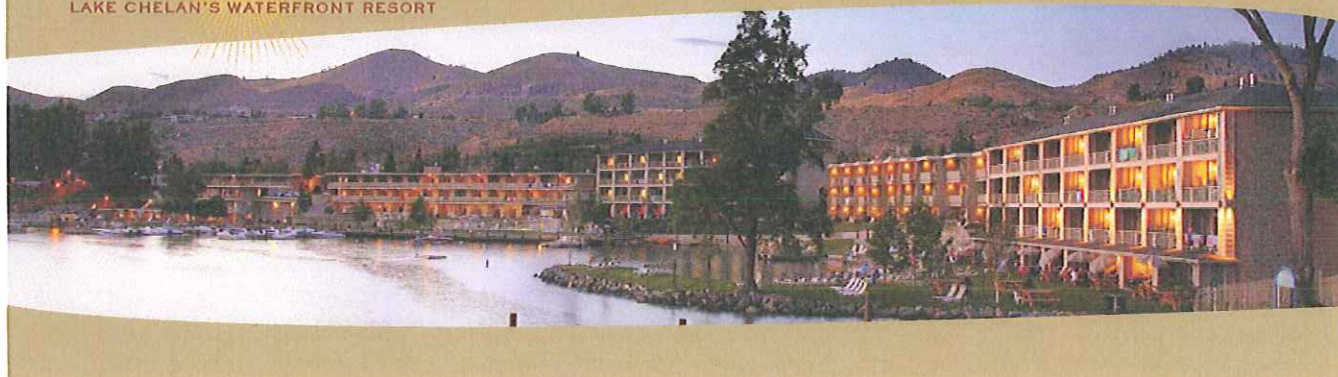

Instructor – Captain D. Hally, Asotin County Sheriff's Office

Dan Hally is currently a Captain with the Asotin County Sheriff's Office in Washington State. He supervises the patrol and investigations division of the Sheriff's Office. He also serves as the Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Detective for the Sheriff's Office and is a member of the Northwest Regional ICAC Taskforce. Dan has extensive experience in providing training on topics related to law enforcement and victim services. Dan has specialized in delivering training in Native American and Native Alaskan Communities. He provides consulting to rural communities in the area of grant writing and he consults for the Department of Justice as a Grant Peer Reviewer. Dan specializes in the area of violence in relationships and the impact on trauma on victims of crime. He has dedicated his career to serving victims of crime and improving law enforcements response after the loss of two family members to a violent homicide in a rural Oregon community. He founded the Houser Christman Memorial Foundation and serves as the Executive Director. The foundation was established to provide emergency funding to crime victims in need and training for first responders. Dan is the contracted Enhanced 911 Coordinator for Asotin County and serves as the Chair of the Washington State E911 Public Education Sub-committee as well as the Vice-Chair for the Washington State E911 Global Information Systems Sub-committee. He is a Forensic Artist and volunteers his services to any requesting law enforcement agency. Dan holds a Bachelor Degree in Justice Studies from Lewis Clark State College and a Master's Degree in Organizational Leadership from Gonzaga University.
